

7 Worksheets

Caution

Depending on the software used by your project partners, the BIM model exchange workflow of a construction project planned using the BIM method may vary.

It is imperative to communicate and collaborate with all stakeholders involved in the project from an early stage and to define/agree on the common Exchange Requirements.

Exchange of a test IFC file exported considering project partners requirements pre project start is highly recommended.